Term Two 2018

Dear Parents

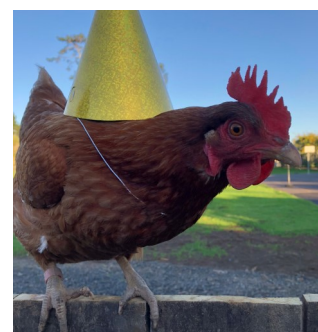

Significant work has been done over the holidays on our campus and I am thrilled to announce that our four new classes are in operation. There are still some minor adjustments to be made but they are looking fantastic. It is fabulous to have larger rooms with new furniture for our students and teachers to teach and learn in a happy, comfortable and stimulating environment, which allows for flexible learning experiences. A huge thank to our hardworking teachers, who have moved twice in just a few months!

Some more painting has been done, building rubble removed, the changing sheds are functional with new decks, parts of the field have been graded and top soiled, grass seed has been sewn in a number of areas and the Jireh chickens have a palace to live in and are happily laying eggs. These are for sale from the office every Friday, if you are ever in need of free range eggs, $6 a dozen.

This covers the cost of their food. We have discovered that one of the reasons the field is so wet is that there is a spring bubbling up near the new court area. This will need to be properly channelled and drained, which is the next big task to be done by our proprietors.

Our official opening day will be later in the Term. The date is yet to be confirmed. Once this is done an invitation will go out to all families. This will be a very significant day in the history of our new school. It will be a day where acknowledgement will be made that we are two Christian communities coming together as one. Our carving will be unveiled outside the library as part of our ceremony and celebrations. The morning will end by sharing breakfast together. There is much to be done in preparation for this important day. We are having a working bee on 19 May to do some cleaning
